n-tech world,
for old-fashioned fun.
sie Railroad.

As the Carolina's original family theme park, Tweetsie Railroad is a unique attraction that allows children and families to explore their imaginations – and a whole lot more. Be a cowboy, Indian or an engineer. Shop along Main Street, learn to clog or pan for gold. And of course, every guest will want to climb aboard our historic locomotive – Number 12.

The centerpiece of our Wild West town, Number 12, is a historic narrow-gauge, coal-fired steam locomotive that originally carried passengers on a daily 66-mile route from Johnson City, TN to Boone, NC. Today, Number 12 is listed among the National Register of Historic Places, and continues to delight visitors of all ages. But come experience it for yourself. It's an adventure-filled ride you won't want to miss!

GO TO TOWN

Take a stroll down Main Street where you can mingle with cowboys and cowgirls. Or meet an Indian chief. There are lots of nice folks at Tweetsie – and yes, a few outlaws, too. Plus, enjoy lots of old-timey shopping, and plenty of good eatin' – from hearty western-style meals to our famous Tweetsie Fudge.

RIDE 'EM COWBOY

At Tweetsie Railroad, there's excitement at every turn. Take a whirl on our Country Fair rides. Or test your shootin' eye in the arcade. Plus, be sure to ride the chair lift or hike up Miner's Mountain where you can pan for gold just like an old prospector. Or visit the friendly critters in the Deer Park.
